Pablo Repun

- Taught private and group lessons in Buenos Aires and in Brazil, Costa Rica, Ecuador, Germany and throughout the US.
- Teaches Argentine tango in the Miami – Ft Lauderdale area and on the west coast of Florida.
- Traveled with the Grammy-winning Quintango quintet performing around the US and is on the cover of their last CD.
- One of the organizers of the "Miami Tangothon", a tango marathon for Florida dancers
- Publisher and Editor of "El Milonguero Tango Magazine", the first Argentine tango magazine in Florida
- Organizes tours to Buenos Aires, "A TODO TANGO"

Pablo teaches all style of Argentine tango: Tango Salon, Close Embrace, Open Embrace, Social, Nuevo Tango, Show Performance and Choreography. He is fluent in English, so can teach in English or Spanish. He is known for his utmost concentration on the importance of posture, balance and technique for both leaders and followers.

Carina Rosario Losano

- Cultural Ambassador by the Secretary of Culture of Buenos Aires in 2000
- Official tango instructor of the Argentine Embassy in Washington, DC.
- Choreographer: her credits include assistant to Juan Carlos Copes for the movie "Tango"; taught Madonna tango technique for her role in Evita
- Awards: the 'Golden Obelisk', 'Teacher of Milongueros', 'Young Generation of Milongueros', and 'Dedication to Tango', which was awarded by Juan Carlos Copes.
- She also was awarded First Prize in the 'Championship Hugo del Carril' in 1997 and for three consecutive years represented 'Solo Tango TV' in the International Exposition of the Cable Industry

As an instructor, Carina teaches a style of tango, which is elegant and dynamic, while at the same time relaxed, comfortable, enjoyable, and accessible to everyone. She emphasizes contact and communication between dancers so that they move together in rhythm and harmony.
